1. Trust statement on attendance

Outstanding attendance is everyone's responsibility.

The Beckfoot Trust is committed to providing a quality education for all our pupils and ensuring that learners and their families understand the importance of punctuality and full attendance at school. Beckfoot Trust schools will work relentlessly to ensure learners are in school as much as possible, working in partnership with parents/carers and partner agencies to identify and remove any obstacles or barriers that interfere with high attendance in a prompt and timely manner. For our pupils to gain the greatest benefit from their education it is vital that they attend school on time and every day.

2. Aims

Our Trust schools will manage and improve attendance by:

- Ensuring that attendance and punctuality is a key strategic priority for the school;
- Setting high expectations for attendance; positively reinforcing full or improved attendance and intervening where attendance falls below 97%;
- Acting swiftly to reduce lateness, absence, and persistent absence, with a specific focus on immediate support for vulnerable learners;
- Working actively with learners and families in nursery and reception classes to emphasise the benefits of high attendance, to reinforce and instill good habits of attendance from the start of learners their educational journey;
- Engaging and involving families in a proactive and positive way to sustain high attendance and to support and challenge parents/carers where attendance falls below 97%;
- Ensuring every pupil of statutory school age has access to full time education;
- Ensuring that a clear and transparent process around the management of punctuality and attendance is agreed and adhered to. These should focus primarily on prevention and reward/celebration, an appropriate level of support and challenge focused specifically at groups and their level of attendance, with punitive measures, including legal action, being implemented as a last resort;
- Ensuring highly visible, regular and consistent communication of these expectations to pupils, families, teaching and associate staff, and governors, including the Trust Board.

We will also support parents to perform their legal duty to ensure pupils attend regularly and on time and will promote and support punctuality in attending lessons.

Trust schools follow the same approach to improving and sustaining attendance, this allows us to maximise the benefits of scale, share good practice and allow the CEO and Trust Board hold headteachers to account in a consistent way.

3. The importance of regular and high attendance

Learning: Pupils' enjoyment of, and ability to participate fully in their education is of paramount importance to us as a Trust. Any absence affects the pattern of a child's schooling. Regular absence seriously affects learners' learning and progress over time, leading to poorer outcomes, which can inhibit life chances and opportunities. Department for Education (2016) research shows a direct relationship between the attendance of learners and their outcomes at the end of primary school or secondary school: put simply, the more days learners go to school, the better they do. Research also shows us that schools that relentlessly pursue good attendance have better overall attainment and behaviour. Our schools are evaluated against Key Performance Indicators relating to attendance and behaviour as well as pupil outcomes.

Safeguarding: Pupils may be at risk of harm if they are not in school regularly. Learners who are missing from school are at significant risk of being victims of harm, exploitation or radicalisation, underachieving, and becoming NEET (not in education, employment or training) later in life. We will do everything we can to ensure our learners are safe.

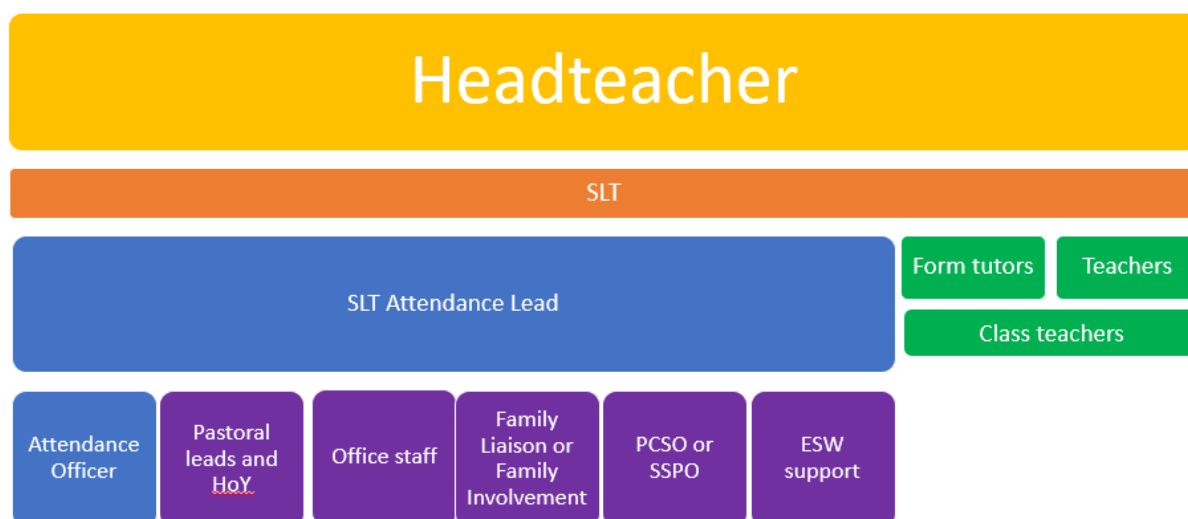

4. Legislation and guidance

This policy meets the requirements of the school attendance guidance from the Department for Education (DfE), and refers to the DfE’s statutory guidance on school attendance parental responsibility measures. These documents are drawn from the following legislation setting out the legal powers and duties that govern school attendance:

- Part 6 of The Education Act 1996
- Part 3 of The Education Act 2002
- Part 7 of The Education and Inspections Act 2006
- The Education \(Pupil Registration\) \(England\) Regulations 2006 (and 2010, 2011, 2013, 2016 amendments)
- The Education \(Penalty Notices\) \(England\) \(Amendment\) Regulations 2013

This policy also refers to the DfE’s guidance on the school census, which explains the persistent absence threshold.

5. Roles and responsibilities

5.1 Trust CEO and the Trust Board

The CEO and Board are responsible for:

- Monitoring trust attendance figures on at least a termly basis.
- Holds the headteacher to account for the implementation of this policy.

The Trust’s link governor for safeguarding, including attendance is Jenny Cryer.

5.2 Central Improvement Team (CIT) Attendance Lead

The CIT Attendance Lead supports schools to implement the trust Attendance Policy and Graduated Approach, including the SEF and undertaking audits.

- Advises the headteacher when to issue fixed-penalty notices.
- Considers and refers any request for elective home education to the Attendance Lead. Ensures that parents fully understand the demands and responsibilities of elective home education.

Not all schools will have a designated Attendance Officer; however, all schools will have named person(s) responsible for the duties outlined above.

5.6 Class teachers (in primary/special) and teachers/form tutors (in secondary)

Class teachers and form tutors know their children well and should monitor changes in presentation and engagement. Their role is to intervene appropriately and to refer any concerns to colleagues as appropriate, for example, family liaison, the SENCo, the DSL, pastoral leads, etc.

The classteacher in primary / special schools and form tutors in secondary schools have a role in monitoring the attendance and absence of their form on a weekly basis.

5.7 Teachers

In primary and special schools: Class teachers are responsible for recording attendance in the morning and the afternoon, using the correct codes, in SIMs or using software that links to SIMs. Both morning and afternoon attendance registers should be completed within 30 minutes of school start time, with late pupils' attendance recorded as appropriate when they arrive.

In secondary schools: Subject teachers are responsible for recording attendance in each of the lessons they teach during the day, using the correct codes, in SIMs or using software that links to SIMs. Both morning and afternoon attendance registers should be completed within 15 minutes of the lesson's start time, with late pupils' attendance recorded as appropriate when they arrive.

5.8 Head of Year/Phase Leader/Personal Development Lead (PDL) [secondary only]

Pastoral staff have a pivotal role in supporting good attendance for the year group or group(s) of pupils they are responsible for. Their responsibilities include:

- Analysing the data for their year group on a weekly basis.
- Identify and mitigate potential barriers to good attendance.
- Deliver early intervention when attendance is falling.
- Arranges calls and meetings with parents to discuss attendance issues.
- Develop and implement persistent absence action plans with pupils and families which address barriers and help establish positive attendance routines.
- Where pupils have additional vulnerabilities arrange TAF meetings
- Involve external agencies to support pupils and families.

5.9 Family Involvement/Engagement Worker FIW, FEW), PCSO, SSPO

Depending on the structure, this role or roles cover the following:

- Establishes close partnerships with parents.
- Keep in regular contact with learners who have low/no attendance, including home visits for vulnerable learners to check on the welfare and presentation of the child.
- Refers and supports families to engage with external agencies to support improved attendance.
- Attends multi-agency and team around the family meetings

5.10 School reception/office staff

School reception/office staff are often the first line of contact with parents. Their role is to:

- Take calls from parents about absence and record it on the school system.
- Enquire about reasons for absence and pass that information to the Attendance Officer.
- Where appropriate, reassure parents that support is available in school encourage parents/carers to send their child in.

- Sign-in pupils who are late to school: those arriving late (L or U codes), those late due to authorised reasons, e.g. following a medical appointment, those pupils with an agreed later start time within a Part Time Timetable agreement.

5.11 Parents and carers

Parents/carers are responsible for:

- Ensure that their child arrives at school on time, in correct dress, equipped, fed and well rested.
- Inform the school on the first morning of their child's absence and provide a reason for absence.
- Keep school informed of their child's likely return.
- Respond to phone calls and home visits from school to check on the welfare of their child.
- Where practicably possible avoid booking medical appointments during school hours.
- Book family holidays during school holidays.

Pupils must:

- Attend school on time every day.
- Attend lessons on time and keep the school's rules.
- Engage with learning and strive to be their best self.
- Speak to an adult in school if they have worries or concerns that could affect their attendance.
- Engage with school and agency support to improve their attendance.

6. Expected practice in Beckfoot Trust schools

6.1 Completion of an annual attendance Self Evaluation Framework (SEF)

At the start of each academic year the SLT Attendance Lead will complete the Trust Attendance SEF, this enables leaders to gather and evaluate a broad range of evidence gathered to make a quantified judgement about different aspects of quality of the whole school strategy. Completing this will provide an overview of strengths and priorities for the coming year.

6.2 Adherence to the Trust policy

The headteacher is ultimately responsible for ensuring that staff in school adhere to the trust policy and other statutory, non-statutory and local authority guidance. The strategic oversight of this and much of the day-to-day operational aspects are delegated to the SLT Attendance Lead and the Attendance Officer.

6.3 Implementation of a local school attendance protocol

Each school has a local school attendance protocol that links directly to this policy. The protocol provides detail on specific aspects, including named individuals with key roles identified above; specific information about the school day, e.g. start and finish times; and how the school recognises and celebrates high attendance.

6.4 Effective monitoring and tracking of attendance

Trust schools use, analyse and report on data at appropriate levels and times: daily (Attendance Officer), weekly (tutors/class teachers), at least weekly (SLT Attendance Lead), at least monthly (HT/SLT). Meaningful analysis is predicated on the attendance register being accurate and up to date (see Section 7).

6.5 Implementation of the Trust Graduated Attendance Strategy

The headteacher is ultimately responsible for ensuring that the Trust Graduated Attendance Strategy is implemented effectively through holding individuals in school accountable for their work. The trust will Quality Assure this implementation through its governance mechanisms, including Challenge Days and the PRAG.

7. Recording attendance

7.1 Attendance register

Trust schools keep attendance registers, and place all pupils onto this register, as they come onto the roll of the school. The register is kept and maintained in schools' Management Information Systems (MIS), currently SIMs.

An attendance register is recorded at the start of the first morning session of each school day and once during the first session in the afternoon. It will mark whether every pupil is:

- Present
- Attending an approved off-site educational activity
- Absent, including a reason if known. If unknown the attendance officer will follow up.
- Unable to attend due to exceptional circumstances.

In general, teachers take the register at the start of their lessons and record as much information as possible. The attendance officer (or a named person with those responsibilities, see 4.4) follows up and completes the register each day. Teachers take registers as shown in the table below and within the first 15 minutes of each lesson, as appropriate.

School phase	Morning	Afternoon	Lessons
Primary	Yes	Yes	n/a
Special	Yes	Yes	n/a
Secondary	Yes (1 st lesson in morning)	Yes (1 st lesson in afternoon)	Yes

Any amendment to the attendance register will include the following and an audit trail will be kept, including confirmation of changes and sign off by the Headteacher:

- The original entry
- The amended entry
- The reason for the amendment
- The date on which the amendment was made
- The name and position of the person who made the amendment.

See Appendix 1 for the DfE attendance codes.

Schools will keep every entry on the attendance register for three years after the date on which the entry was made.

Refer to the local school protocol for information on the opening and closing of registers.

7.2 Planned absence

A planned absence from school should be communicated to school as soon as this is known.

Refer to the local school protocol for notification procedures.

Attending a medical or dental appointment will be counted as authorised as long as the pupil's parent/carer notifies the school in advance of the appointment.

However, we encourage parents/carers to make medical and dental appointments out of school hours where possible. Where this is not possible, the pupil should be out of school for the minimum amount of time necessary.

The pupil's parent/carer must also apply for other types of term-time absence as far in advance as possible of the requested absence. Please note that informing the school of intended absence does not mean that this absence will be authorised; for example, absence due to a term time holiday will be treated as an unauthorised absence.

7.3 Unplanned absence

The pupil's parent/carer must notify the school of any unplanned absence.

Refer to the local school protocol for timings and notification procedures.

We will mark absence due to illness as authorised unless the school has a genuine concern about the authenticity of the illness.

If the authenticity of the illness is in doubt, the school may ask the pupil's parent/carer to provide medical evidence, such as a doctor's note, prescription, appointment card or other appropriate form of evidence. We will not ask for medical evidence unnecessarily.

If the school is not satisfied about the authenticity of the illness, the absence will be recorded as unauthorised and parents/carers will be notified of this in advance.

7.4 Lateness and punctuality

A pupil who arrives late:

- Before the register has closed will be marked as late, using the appropriate code.
- After the register has closed will be marked as absent, using the appropriate code.

7.5 Following up on absence

Where any child we expect to attend school does not attend, or stops attending, the school will:

- Follow up on their absence with their parent/carer to ascertain the reason
- Ensure proper safeguarding action is taken where necessary
- Identify whether the absence is approved or not
- Identify the correct attendance code to use

Where an absence is unplanned and there is no or insufficient communication with the school, the Attendance Officer will follow up on this with the parent/carer and will refer to the appropriate authority should this be needed; for example, referring to the Child Missing in Education team at the Local Authority.

7.6 Reporting to parents

Headteachers and schools follow DfE guidance in relation to reporting annually on attendance and absence to all pupils, see here for current guidance.

Schools provide a quantitative report to parents/carers on their child's attendance record at the end of each year.

8. Authorised and unauthorised absence

8.1 Approval for term-time absence

Trust schools follow DfE guidance on use of attendance and absence codes as appropriate for the circumstances. Further information on each of the codes used can be found in Appendix 1. Absence is either authorised or unauthorised. In general, authorised absence is unavoidable, due to illness, necessary medical appointments or interventions, observing religious occasions, an exclusion, etc. and unauthorised absences are avoidable. Our priority will always be to reduce unauthorised absences and minimise authorised absences.

Further information on selected reasons for absence

Illness (I code) Authorised absence	Parents must call on the first day of absence and on subsequent days. Schools should record as unauthorised absence if not satisfied on its authenticity - school must inform parents of intention. Acceptable medical evidence includes appointment cards, texts from GP surgery, etc.
Covid-19 absence (X code) in 2021/22 Not included in absence figures	Schools should use the X code when pupils have been advised to self-isolate by NHS Test and Trace This code must only be used to record where a pupil's attendance would be contrary to public health advice or guidance related to COVID-19. It should not be used to record any other type of non-attendance or absence: for example, where a pupil is anxious about attending school because of COVID-19. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pupils with symptoms of COVID-19 should self-isolate and get a PCR test. Whilst these pupils self-isolate and await the results of their test, they should be recorded as Code X in the register. pupils who are identified as a close contact by NHS Test and Trace should get a PCR test. • Close contacts do not need to self-isolate while waiting for their result. If they receive a positive PCR result, they must self-isolate. • Pupils with a positive test result and confirmed case of COVID-19 should be marked as Code I (illness) until they are able to return to school.
Headteacher authorised exceptional circumstances (C code) Authorised absence	Approval must be requested and provided in advance; in limited circumstances the school will accept a subsequent explanation. There needs to be a very clear rationale and narrative around the reasons a C code has been used, e.g. a plan in place with home visits if a child is not in the school building.
Religious Observances (R code) Authorised absence	This must be a day set apart for observance by the religious body to which parents belong. Examples: Sikh - Guru Nanak (Nov); Hindu - Diwali (Oct/Nov); Islam - Eid al-Fitr, Eid al-Adha; Judaism - Passover (Apr); Buddhism - Vesak (Apr/May); Jehovah's Witnesses - Passover (Apr). LA guidance states up to three days will be authorised for Eid within an academic year; it is at the school's discretion to close in full or part.
Term time holidays (G code) Unauthorised absence	As a general rule, holidays during term time will not be authorised. Schools will issue penalty notices in line with the legislation. We work closely with the LA to ensure that unauthorised absence is minimised. We follow the Local Code of Conduct in relation to Penalty Notices for non-attendance and will request the LA issue a Penalty Notice if parents fail to ensure their child or children attends regularly. LA guidance can be found here.
Lateness L code – present but late U code – unauthorised absence	Schools encourage children to attend on time from their first day in school; punctuality is an important and persistent lateness disrupts the education of all children in the class. Where lateness is persistent and does not improve, the Local Code of Conduct allows the school to pursue a Penalty Notice for this reason.

8.2 Reducing persistent absence

Trust schools use the Attendance SEF to identify best practice to support pupils who are (a) currently Persistently Absent (PA), or (b) at risk of becoming PA. Trust schools follow the Trust Graduated Attendance Strategy and use the documentation consistently, including nudge letters, engaging outside agency support and progressing to panels, etc.

8.3 Legal sanctions

The school or local authority can fine parents for the unauthorised absence of their child from school, where the child is of compulsory school age.

If issued with a fine, or penalty notice, each parent must pay £60 within 21 days or £120 within 28 days. The payment must be made directly to the local authority.

Penalty notices can be issued by a headteacher, local authority officer or the police.

The decision on whether or not to issue a penalty notice may take into account:

- The number of unauthorised absences occurring within a rolling academic year
- One-off instances of irregular attendance, such as holidays taken in term time without permission
- Where an excluded pupil is found in a public place during school hours without a justifiable reason

If the payment has not been made after 28 days, the local authority can decide whether to prosecute or withdraw the notice.

9. Strategies for promoting attendance

Trust schools' strategies for promoting high attendance are informed by the Attendance SEF and the Trust Graduated Attendance Strategy (see Section 6 and related documents). The school's priorities for the year ahead can be found in the local school protocol as well as information on how high attendance is recognised and celebrated.

10. Attendance monitoring

The attendance officer at our school monitors pupil absence on a daily basis and their classteacher or form tutor on a weekly basis.

A pupil's parent/carer is expected to call the school in the first morning if their child is going to be absent due to ill health and confirm the reason. Parents/carers should also confirm absence on subsequent days.

When a pupil's absence goes beyond one of the thresholds in the Trust Graduated Attendance Strategy, the school will follow the strategy and contact the parent/carer of the pupil as outlined to discuss the reasons for this.

If a pupil's absence continue to rise after this intervention their parent/carer, trust schools continue to follow the Trust Graduated Attendance Strategy and intervene as appropriate at each threshold.

The persistent absence threshold is 10%. If a pupil's individual overall absence rate is greater than or equal to 10%, the pupil will be classified as a persistent absentee and the school will intervene as appropriate.

Trust schools collect and store attendance data and use it to better understand their pupils. For example, to:

- Track the attendance of individual pupils.
- Track the attendance of year groups and pupil groups.
- Identify whether or not there are particular groups of children whose absence may be a cause for concern.
- Monitor and evaluate those children identified as being in need of intervention and support.

- Understand whether there are particular issues relating to reasons for absence, e.g. high illness levels etc.
- Look at attendance in conjunction with assessment data to understand any obstacles to pupils progressing in their learning.

The SLT Attendance Lead will regularly report on attendance and absence to the Headteacher and Senior Leadership Team, identify causes for concern and/or areas of strategic success.

Pupil-level absence data will be collected each term via the school census and published at national and local authority level through the DfE's school absence national statistics releases. The underlying school-level absence data is published alongside the national statistics. The school will regularly compare attendance and absence data to national and local averages, within and between schools, and by pupil groups. This will be reported to the Central Leadership Team and the Trust Board.

Trust position on specific groups of pupils

Group	Schools will:
Children below compulsory school age (Nursery/Reception)	The families of children attending our schools' Early Years provision are encouraged to instill good attendance and punctuality habits from Day 1. Readiness to learn is predicated on positive routines, including arriving on time for school, wearing school uniform, etc.
Young people above compulsory school age (sixth form)	Young people attending our sixth forms are expected to attend all lessons and sessions punctually, whether on the school site or through remote learning. Attendance at tutorials and assemblies is also compulsory, regardless of how they are delivered.
Pupils on partial timetables	There is a high threshold for the use of partial timetables for our pupils and their use is reserved for meeting very specific needs, including phased returns from significant illness, protective circumstances, etc. Where a partial timetable is in place, the member of SLT with responsibility for attendance must meet with the family and agree the conditions. There must be regular review dates with the intention of transitioning the pupil to a full timetable as soon as possible. Headteacher should retain oversight of partial timetables
Pupils accessing Wave 4: Complementary Curriculum	A number of vulnerable pupils in our schools will benefit from the Complementary Curriculum delivered in Wave 4. Regular attendance and punctuality of these pupils is expected in line with this policy; however, the schools and trust will closely monitor the attendance of pupils benefitting from this provision, both individually and as a group, and seek external agencies' support as needed.
Pupils in Alternative Provision (B/C codes)	Protocols are in place to ensure the safety of pupils attending Alternative Provision, including maximising attendance and sharing of information relating to pupils' safety, attendance, absence and progress made in the provision. This includes maintained and independent alternative education providers.
Pupils attending other schools/provision (B/D codes)	Protocols are in place to ensure the safety of pupils attending other schools (including on Managed Moves), including maximising attendance and sharing of information relating to pupils' attendance, absence and progress whilst attending the school. Trust schools follow DfE Exclusions guidance in terms of arranging Day 6 provision for pupils who are excluded from school for more than five days and have agreements in place with other local schools through BACS.

Children at Risk of Missing Education (CME)	Schools follow statutory guidance in ' Keeping Children Safe in Education ' (2021) and work closely with Bradford LA in relation to their shared responsibilities in relation to children's welfare and safety. LA guidance can be found here .
Elective Home Education (EHE)	We want our pupils to attend and enjoy their education in school and, as such, endeavour to ensure no pupils leave to be Electively Home Educated. Where no other solution to supporting the pupil in school can be found, the family must make their request in writing to the school, in line with the DfE Attendance guidance, and the school will delete the child from the admission register. LA guidance can be found here .

11. Monitoring arrangements

This policy will be reviewed annually and, as guidance from the local authority or DfE is updated. At every review, the policy will be approved by the Trust Board.

12. Links with other policies

This policy links to the following policies: Trust Child protection and safeguarding policy and Trust Behaviour Policy.
